CORK CYCLING ARTS FESTIVAL

CYCLING ADVOCACY MEETING

Monday, 21st July 2008

LET'S TALK ABOUT CYCLING...

Cyclists, Future Cyclists and Cycling Friends are all welcome to join the Cycling Advocacy Meeting held at UCC on Monday 21 July 2008 as part of Cork's first ever arts festival celebrating the bicycle culture in Cork.

This public meeting will open Cork Cycling Arts Festival and will offer a two-hour session of talks by local and international speakers followed by a public debate.

Learn about the "Cycling Experience in the City" and share valuable knowledge and experiences with other cyclists, experts and community leaders.

Amsterdam-based Pascal van den Noort, one of the most famous cycling experts in Europe (Velo Mondial), will take part in this special event to share his extensive knowledge of cycling-friendly cities.

The public meeting is organised by University College Cork and Cork Cycling Campaign.

Date: Monday 21 July – 6pm to 8pm

Venue: University College Cork, O'Rahilly Building, Room 212
- free entrance -
